Children of the Caribbean Foundation is not simply concerned with the welfare of children in the Caribbean, but the organization also cares about children all over the world - especially at this time of the year!

CHILDREN OF THE CARIBBEAN FOUNDATION, (Beverly Hills, CA December 19, 2011) provided the homeless children of Los Angeles with a warm lunch and $30 dollar Visa Gift Cards for Christmas on Friday, December 16th 2011. The children whose ages range from 12 years to 17 years are residents at a Hollywood Homeless Shelter in Los Angeles that is operated by the Los Angeles Youth Network. CHILDREN OF THE CARIBBEAN FOUNDATION provides assistance and relief to underprivileged children across the Caribbean and this year the Foundation has reached out to deserving children within it's own community - here in Los Angeles, CA. According to Jessica Witt, Director of Community Outreach with the Los Angeles Youth Network, CHILDREN OF THE CARIBBEAN FOUNDATION through it's actions has become an advocate for every homeless, abandoned and neglected youth on the streets. Jessica states, that CHILDREN OF THE CARIBBEAN FOUNDATION'S kindness "further provides the means for our youth to be assisted in taking the most important step toward the road to self-sufficiency and success in their future." CHILDREN OF THE CARIBBEAN FOUNDATION IS A 501c(3) non-profit Organization, founded by Rosie Hodge-Adams and Julien Adams and governed by a board of trustees.
